San Francisco State University, School of Theatre & Dance Presents

Lyrebirds

Content Warning
This production contains themes and discussion of drug abuse and suicide. If you are struggling with any of these issues, please know that the cast and crew of Lyrebirds wish you happiness and safety, and encourage you to find professional help if you need it.
Lyrebirds

Written and Directed by Nicolaz Ruiz

CAST
Epiphany, Tiera, Magpie, Miklo, Donya

Playwright’s Note
Epiphany is a young Lyrebird who lives in the in between. She seeks truth in the birds she loves, however the birds she loves are blind to themselves. Thus, her search goes unnoticed, and she is forced to create her own truth. Lyrebirds is a coming-of-age story where an honest innocent is asked to make sense of a world that seems to have no desire for truth. Thus, what happens when the innocent are left in a world grounded in ignorance?

Acknowledgments
Thank you to all my professors, teachers, and classmates who have helped me with their ideas, thoughts, and counsel.

Resources
Suicide Prevention Lifeline: 888-273-8255
Crisis Text Line: Text “HOME” to 741741 (if in California text “HOME” to 686868)
AAC (American Addiction Centers) Website: https://americanaddictioncenters.org

This production is supported by funding from the Instructionally Related Activities (IRA) fund.